ROBERT “TONY” BRICE OF TOWERS WATSON AND LARRY JOHNSON OF POLYONE CORPORATION ELECTED TO CORNUCOPIA’S BOARD OF TRUSTEES

LAKEWOOD, Ohio – Robert “Tony” Brice, senior consultant at Towers Watson and Larry Johnson, global healthcare marketing director at Polyone Corporation have been elected to the board of trustees at Cornucopia, Inc.

Cornucopia, Inc. operates Nature’s Bin, a full service natural and organic foods market located in Lakewood, Ohio. This natural foods market serves as a training site for a unique and successful program that provides vocational training leading to employment for people with disabilities.

Brice and Johnson will each serve a three-year term and assist in community outreach. In addition, they will communicate with members of the business community and civic organizations regarding Cornucopia’s mission to help people with disabilities develop their skills, confidence and workplace potential.

“We are honored to welcome new members to the board of trustees,” stated Scott Duennes, executive director of Cornucopia/Nature’s Bin. “Cornucopia and Nature’s Bin have been a part of our local community for 36 years and it’s leaders such as Tony and Larry whose enthusiasm and commitment help keep our programs and mission alive,” added Duennes.

Brice has more than 25 years experience in consulting and client relationship management. In his current role, Brice provides consultancy services that help organizations improve performance through effective people, risk and financial management.

Brice holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science from Denison University.

Johnson has more than 25 years experience in sales, marketing and management. In his current role, Johnson is responsible for driving growth through new business development and strategic planning for Polyone Corporation.

Johnson holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Management and a Master’s Degree in Business Administration from Wright State University.

About Nature's Bin

Nature's Bin, a full service natural and organic foods market located in Lakewood, Ohio, is operated by the nonprofit, Cornucopia, Inc. This natural foods market serves as a training site for a unique and successful program that provides vocational training leading to employment for people with disabilities. Programs hosted at Nature's Bin serve people with a wide range of severe disabilities including developmental disabilities, autism, mental illness, visual, speech and hearing impairments, and injuries resulting from accident or illness. What distinguishes the programs at Nature's Bin from other training facilities is the real-work learning environment. Trainees work side-by-side with staff members in all aspects of retail service, facing the challenges and rewards of competitive employment in a caring, supportive atmosphere. Cornucopia/Nature's Bin has been serving people with disabilities for over 35 years.
